Ashlar-Vellum™ Extends Enterprise Licensing Across Product Line

November 13, 2023 Austin, TX. Ashlar-Vellum is proud to announce extended Enterprise Licensing across their complete product line of 2D/3D Drafting and 3D Solid & Surface Modeling software for Mac and Windows.

Running on the most current operating systems, all products are made to be used across your entire team, allowing anyone who needs to sketch, draw or model to be productive within minutes. Now, everyone can have precision drawing and modeling tools, that are both easily run and powerful, including:

- Product design
- Engineering
- Evangelists
- C-suite executives
- Marketing illustrations and mockups
- Technical documentation & illustrations
- Production operators
- Training professionals
- Maintenance and operations

They don't have to choose between powerful precision software and that which is easy to use on an occasional basis. Ashlar-Vellum software is high performance on both scales.

Enterprise licensing is offered in lots of 50, 250, 2500 and 25,000, making it a great fit for any size operation.
